BOOK OF THE YEAR 1963

A LOOK BACK AT 1963

It was a great year for professional wrestling.

Florida fans were treated early to a rivalry between two of the sport's all-time greatest villain team's, managed by two of wrestling's immortals:

In Texas, meanwhile, two very well-known grapplers had a tense rivalry. Both have since passed away, but their sons carry on the fine traditions of their fathers. The sons are Dory Funk, Jr. and Terry Funk, both former N.W.A.

World Champions; and Ted DiBaise, whose dad competed under the name Iron Mike with the last name sometimes included. For some unknown reason, newspaper ads such as the one below often would misspell Dory, Sr.'s first name:

Lou Thesz captured his sixth N.W.A. World title early in the year and successfully defended it against his predecessor, Buddy Rogers, in a rematch in Toronto, this time two out of three falls. The W.W.W.F. people refused to recognize Thesz after the first meeting in Toronto on the basis of it being a one fall match. Why they failed to give him recognition after the return bout is anyone's guess. The fact remains that after beating Rogers a second time, Thesz returned to Toronto and defeated Bruno Sammartino, who LATER defeated Rogers in New York City's Madison Square Garden to claim the W.W.W.F. belt.

Interestingly, on the card headlined by the Thesz-Rogers return title bout, Sammartino appeared in a tag team match partnered with Gino Marella. Who is Gino Marella? He's the heavyweight who later gained fame and fortune as Gorilla Monsoon. Although he and Bruno were partners this night, many months later would begin a lengthy rivalry between the two in the W.W.W.F. rings.

In the Buffalo, New York area a situation arose that could be confusing when looked back upon. Two strongmen, The Beast and The Mongol, feuded. The Mongol was managed by a wrestler known as Nicoli Volkoff. Years later, a matman different than any of these (much bigger for one thing) began competing in the W.W.W.F. rings under the name of Beppo Mongol. This same individual would later change his ring name to Nicoli Volkoff and again compete in the W.W.W.F. area. Some sharp-eyed fans recognized him as being the same person who had been half of a tag team called The Mongols. The other member of that team was NOT, however, the same Mongol that appeared in Buffalo but a third different person. Confused?

The match will also pair Rogers, of Camden, N.J.; and his conqueror, Sammartino, against each other for the first time since the 265 pound Pittsburgh Italian dethroned Rogers as the heavyweight champion before a sell-out crowd at Madison Square Garden on May 17, in just 48 seconds.

It was a good year but it didn't end without tragedy. The wrestling world lost one of the people most responsible for making the sport the huge success it was: Gorgeous George.

He was the first and most successful of the bleach blond "pretty boys" and in later years was often imitated but never equalled.

It is to his memory that this nostalgic look at 1963 is dedicated by the author, Terry Robert Justice.

STARR-LEWIN!!

Bobby Graham to Face Jack Dalton

Bobby Graham, who has been verging on greatness ever since his arrival here several weeks ago, gets a chance to prove his real worth here tonight.

BOBBY GRAHAM

Bobby stays in the prelims but he gets a shot at one of the top hands in the game when he goes against Bruising Jack Dalton. A victory over Jack would send Graham's stock sky high and would almost assure him a spot in the higher brackets.

"I have been waiting for an opportunity like this for a long time," said Bobby. "You can rest assured that I am going to go all out to dispose of this Dalton character. And I know that I have a big job ahead of me."

Graham is the type wrestler who just takes Jack Dalton for a big ride. Bobby is fast, big enough and ambitious. Above all this comparative newcomer has proven that he can get as tough as the toughest . . . and this is what he will have to do in the case

RICKI STARR

COMMISSION ORDERS RETURN; NICK KOZAK WILL REFEREE

Fort Worth wrestling fans demanded the return Main Event tonight between Maniac Mark Ltwin and Tricky Ricki Starr. The state Commissioner ordered the match to take place and both contestants are ready to go all out in what should really be a gruelling battle.

It has also been ruled that Nick Kozak will serve as referee rather than Marvin Jones. This is most pleasing to the fans but most distasteful to Maniac Mark Lewin.

Spectators will remember that in their last meeting Maniac Mark won when Starr was ruled out on a foul by Jones. The foul claim brought a great deal of protest and resulted in the return engagement. This also was the cause of Kozak being named as referee.

MARK LEWIN

"The foul ruling was not justified in the least," said Ricki. "I am certainly not saying that Marvin Jones deliberately called the infraction . . . I am just saying that he was in error. If you will remember Lewin seemed in terrible pain until Jones left the ring . . . then Mark got up and walked off as if nothing had happened!"

"You have to pull all of the stops when you meet Lewin," Starr continued. "He will not allow you to wrestle fair and square. No one knows this better than Nick Kozak and for that reason I think that he is an excellent choice as referee."

There was a very great difference in opinion concerning the naming of Nick Kozak.

"Why certainly that sissy prancer wants Kozak as a referee

TILLET RETURNS WITH BUD; TAKES ON COWBOY AND NICK

Rugged Frenchman Louie Tillet is back in Fort Worth tonight and this time he has his brother Jean with him. They will appear in the semi-final match tonight against the popular team of Cowboy Bob Ellis and Nick Kozak.

Louie is a well-known figure locally and is known mainly for his rough-house tactics. He claims that his brother is just as rough and tough as he is and that as a tag team they are unbeatable.

"We have wrestled the World over," said Louie, "and we have yet to find a team that can hold a light with us. We are so pleased that we are getting a couple of pretty good wrestlers in our first time out."

That is quite an understatement . . . calling Cowboy Ellis and Nick Kozak "a couple of pretty good wrestlers." Actually these two are rated right at the top of the ladder and it would be hard to find any pair against whom these two could not hold their own.

"The Cowboy and I are glad to be teamed together again," said Nick. "We have worked together on a number of occasions and we have yet to be out-manned. Ellis and I realize that we have our work cut out for us here tonight, but we believe that we have the situation well in hand."

LOUIE TILLET

Bob Boyer Is Coming to Texas

Bob Boyer, due here soon, has one distinction no other wrestler can claim. He learned to wrestle on the high seas! During a rugged

4-year stint in the Merchant Marine Bob spent every moment of his spare time in the gruelling process of learning the intricacies of the mat game from a former wrestler who had shipped on the crew.

And it could be said that since then Bob has kept a lot of wrestlers at sea! The husky youngster went into the Maritime Service with a background of athletic activity with emphasis on hockey, football and soccer. But when Chuck Larsen spotted him working out with improvised weights to keep up his strength on board a vessel a friendship was made that brought on a new career.

Bob comes from an area of the country that has spawned a lot of top-notch mat stars. Montreal has long been the top wrestling city in Canada and Bob had the inspiration of having hero worshipped a great many stars.

When he decided to turn in his Seaman's ticket and stay ashore, Boyer frequented the gymnasiums of Montreal but instead of going as a neophyte he went in with experience and teaching that brought him immediate attention from veteran wrestlers and promoters.

MARVIN JONES, Referee

Boyer depends on speed and a whirlwind attack to make his point in the mat game but has never been known to dodge a match that got rough around the edges. He has had his share of injuries, one of them left a six-inch scar on his head, but he can also point to a career that has dented a lot of famous heads.

Bob is a likable and popular fellow who gathers friends wherever he goes . . . one of his aims in Texas is to continue that policy.

Newcomer Tillet, Louie's younger brother, proved right off the bat that he had no inferior complex.

COWBOY BOB ELLIS

"I came to this country and to Texas from my native France because Louie told me that the toughest wrestlers in the world were right here in the Southwest," said Jean. "That's what I am looking for because the tougher they are the better I like 'em . . . and that goes for my brother, too."

"Louie and I have traveled around the globe looking for tough boys that could give us a scrap but we have never found a pair that could make it interesting. I don't exactly know what a Cowboy is but mabe this Ellis fellow and Kozak fellow can make it at least interesting for us."

Mysterious Pair Of Medics Soon

Tag Team matches have become quite the thing in Fort Worth of late and there is a good possibility that a new pair will be strutting around the North Side Coliseum in the not too distant future. They are known as the Mysterious Medics.

It was more than the nationwide interest in the Ben Casey and Dr. Kildare shows that brought the Mysterious Medics into wrestling.

They first met on the battlefield during the Korean conflict and have been together ever since as one of the toughest and hardest to handle tag team combinations the mat game has ever seen.

Both were youngsters when they entered the Armed Services and as they were both wrestling at the time they decided to stick together as long as possible. Chance kept them in the same outfit through all of their service and they managed to make the most of it by constantly working out, even close to the front lines, at every opportunity.

The idea for the Mysterious Medics mat team was born in the fact that they were Medics in the service. While the lessons they learned in uniform were for the spreading of mercy and the application of life saving first aid, they offer none of these things now.

"It was easy to turn the knowledge around," said one of the masked men, "learning to hurt is the reverse of learning to heal and in wrestling we know where to find the muscle we want and how to put it out of commission with more than just wrestling leverage.

The tactics have paid off well at the bank. Neither of them seem to care that they have left a trail of bloody heads behind them and that one newspaper in the South said that they had left more damage behind them since General Sherman marched to the Sea through Georgia. "Sherman was a piker," said the other Medic, "he had his men do his fighting for him. We do our own."

McShane Returns To Meet London

The opening match will see Irish Danny McShane return to the North Side Coliseum to face popular Jerry London in a one-fall or 15-minute bout.

McShane has been absent from the local arena for a few weeks and will probably use his usual rugged tactics against the young Canadian.

He will find that Jerry is very capable of defending himself and the Irishman had better be careful because London likes to mix it up when his opponent forces him to.

When two Irishmen get together you can expect trouble. When Doc Gallagher gave Danno O'Shocker several elbows on the back of his neck, Danno climbed right up on Doc to repay him in full.

Those fighting Bayonne, N. J., Bombers, Doc and Mike Gallagher—continue to meet all available opponents no matter who they may be. Once again chosen by Ring Magazine as the runner-up in a national poll of tag teams, the boys feel that they can only remain in that position by meeting opponents who are likely to remove them from their vaunted position.

When Nat Loubet, Ring Wrestling Editor, gave the Gallagher Brothers the Honorable Mention tab in the annual rating which appeared in the February issue of The Ring Magazine, the boys were proud of the designation. "And we expect to keep those honors, because we have won them in the only way a tag team can win and that is by defeating all teams which are thrown against them," says Doc and Mike.

It must be admitted that the Gallaghers do not have faint hearts, at least.

MIKE & DOC GALLAGHER - those Boisterous, Bruising Bayonne Belters continue their onslaught for tag team honors.

When not wrestling this mighty Nimrod—Eric can be found outdoors hunting for his supper on some Canadian lake. He can't adjust himself to civilized ways, and yet he is tender and kind.

With his enormous strength, the bear hug should be his favorite hold. He renders his opponents helpless with his titanic crushing force. Cornera says of this, "Never had I witnessed such devastating power in a man."

His bare feet grip the mat like suction pads, making it impossible to tear him off for a throw. Here Managoff tries helplessly for a fall without success.

The stalking Colossus of the Klendike in a striking pose, portraying primitive power and force. He has the primitive will to absorb a gigantic amount of punishment, and tempers his courage in battle always leaving his mauling marks on all his opponents. ALL PHOTOS BY TONY LANZA.

With an avalanche of might and muscle, this ponderous and superb token from the white man's last frontier, stalks across our civilized scenes—an inevitable threat to the lordly kings of the mat. Mat history will write in sonorous tones of the devastating march of this young giant.

Yukon Eric, was born in Fairbanks, Alaska, of Swedish parents, rooted in primitive nature. At an early age he learned to use the bow and arrow with the skill of an Indian. And cast the spear at darting fish. With these primitive weapons he roamed the forests and rivers, bringing down wild geese, wolf and bear alike with his unerring aim. A true Nimrod, he learned to mimic the calls of birds and beast, to lure them into his traps. While but a youth he fearlessly hunted the savage timber wolf, and the grizzly in their native haunts. Across Arctic snows he tracked the caribou, the elk and moose.

Moose Cholak, a ponderous 300-pounder, is another of matdom's villainous characters who lacks loyal supporters but doesn't suffer any financial deficit as a result.

Like many other notorious stars of the pro ranks, Moose Cholak can cry all the way to the bank. He's built up a healthy nest egg during the past three years.

THOSE GALLGHERS MEAN TROUBLE

By EARLE YETTER

These two hard-bitten and hard-fighting Hibernians who learned their wrestling the hard way when they were lads in the tough waterfront City of Bayonne, New Jersey, are determined to hang on to their laurels as the top tag team in the country.

Mike Gallagher says, "I think we have proven our right to the honors bestowed upon us last month by The Ring Magazine which designated us as the top team in the country. We have not refused to meet any bonafide challengers, and until then we cannot and will not be deprived of any glory . . . Why . . . because we have proven our ability as a tag team . . . We have fought and given our best in every bout we have appeared in, and we intend to keep it that way . . . Why, because we like it. We have earned these honors and we fully intend to hang on to them," concluded the precocious Mike.

Doc Gallagher says: "Mike is right. We do not intend to lose the honors we have gained through sweat and blood and bruises. We still believe we are the best tag team in the country and have demonstrated that fact in every bout we have been in. Furthermore, we have no intention of losing those honors. Yes, there are fans who say we are unorthodox, but let me say that wrestling today is as Sunday School picnic. We have every right to protect ourselves at all times, and, so help us, we intend to do just that on our every appearance. We hand it out, and we take it too, but that is the brand of every professional wrestler. I think we will hang on to our laurels for some time to come, concluded Doc.

FIFTEEN CENTS

THESZ --- A SURPRISE NEXT WEEK

LOU THESZ

Due to a break we never dreamed of, we were able to sign World Champion Lou Thesz for a world's title match here next week. Thesz was signed for a Houston appearance and found himself with a Saturday night open. Due to a lifelong friendship, Lou thought of us, called us and wonder of wonders, offered to meet anyone we chose. This is so unusual . . . a world's champion calling and asking to be matched against any contender. Who says it doesn't pay to have friends? We have not selected an opponent but we promise you the best competition available.

Reservations for next week's all championship card plus the mat game's outstanding attraction, the darling midget, girl wrestlers, will be accepted at the box office tonight. We suggest you make that reservation tonight and request all reservations be picked up before 8:00 p.m. next Saturday night. Reservations positively cannot be held beyond that hour.

Usual championship prices will prevail: Ringside $2.50 — Reserved $2.00 — Gen. Adm. $1.50 — Children under 12 $1.00. Ordinarily we would have raised our prices for the girl midgets alone but just look what a bargain you are getting next week. The entire card will be announced tonight and in the usual manner.

Cute, capable little Maria Deleon didn't waste any time crying over her loss to the blazing redhead, Verne Bottoms last week. "I beat her all the way but I just couldn't overcome that tremendous weight advantage she carried on me. The weight difference meant so much in that kind of a match. No alibis, I lost. So now I am going to challenge her to one more match. Only this time it will be a straight wrestling match, only this time the loser will have to be tarred and feathered right in the ring. Get her name on a contract and I guarantee she will get another beating from me." Well that's an idea we intend to explore further. Keep tuned to this station. We may make an announcement soon.

NICK KOZAK

CHIEF WHITE WOLF

HOW TOUGH IS LOUIE TILLET?

The title of roughest and toughest usually is accorded to roaring Bull Curry but then one is reminded that it was Louie Tillet who beat Bull Curry for the Brass Knucks title in one of the mat game's wildest, roughest, bloodiest battles oldtimers can recall. Since his return here, Louie, abetted by Brother Jean is even stormier, rougher, more controversial than ever. Just what or who is going to beat the vicious yet capable Frenchman may come out tonight in the tag team main event. Surely there are no two better wrestlers in the game than the husky Indian White Wolf and hustling, hard-hitting Nick Kozak. Louie Tillet won't be in the ring alone. Brother Jean will offer more than moral support. He is a burly two-footed, fisted backer-up. It should be a great battle and the winners can move up to the head of the class.

PRETTY PAT IS RATED A KILLER

PATTERSON

Whether Patterson is "pretty," whether he is a killer or whether he is some kind of a "nut" is something that local mat fans will have to decide for themselves, and they may get the chance tonight when "Pretty" Pat or "Killer" Pat steps out against one of the bigger and better Mexican wrestlers of the past few years, Polo Torres. You make up your own mind.

AS IRISH AS PADDY'S PIG!

That is what they say about Irish Pat Barrett. He was born in Ireland and his strong Irish accent convinces you he is more Irish than the shillalegh he carries in the ring with him. Irish Pat Barrett is a likeable, capable athlete and he likes to prove it. In against the bearded, beatnik-looking roughster, Bad Boy Hines, Pat gets his chance.

Midget Diamond Lil Here Next Week

DIAMOND LIL

DARLING DAGMAR

One of the cutest athletes you are liable to see in a lifetime of viewing wrestling matches makes her debut next week against the little rowdy blonde hatchet girl, Darling Dagmar. There is little doubt that Diamond Lil will make as big a hit here as she is in every leading arena in the country. The 41 inch, 84 pound cutie is a bundle of action and has fans all over the country buzzing about the way she buzzes around the ring. Dagmar, the tough, rugged little blonde, has been here twice before and brother, has she really put it on the top shelf both times.

O'Connor Set for Crusher

With an eye on a future shot at the Verne Gagne's world's heavyweight title, popular Pat O'Connor returns to the Minneapolis mat scene tonight, facing the terrible Crusher.

The simple fact that his first match is a main eventer complements O'Connor's ability as a pro wrestler. Few wrestlers in history sport a win record anywhere near O'Connor's.

His first match in town, however, will be like jumping into the middle of a bar room brawl. In fact, that's exactly what it is likely to be. The Crusher is famed for his saloon antics, many of which he carries into the ring with him.

O'Connor has proved that he can handle the Crusher's type. He holds victories over such roughnecks as Fritz von Erich, Gene Kinski and Buddy Rogers.

But the Crusher is just as tough, if not tougher, than any of the aforementioned grapplers.

O'Connor, a scientific wrestler, got his start in wrestling at Massey University in New Zealand and was undefeated in six years. The late Tony Stecker and Wally Karbo started O'Connor on the road to greatness right here in Minneapolis.

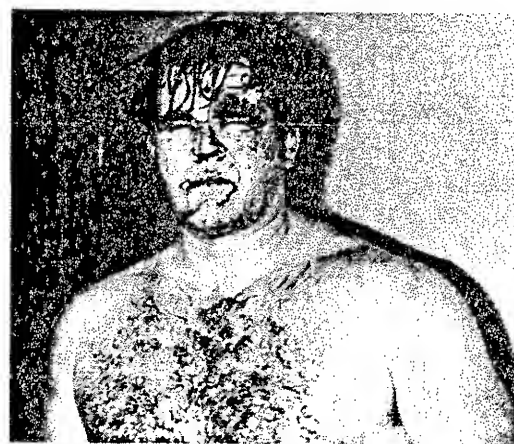

His sole purpose in coming to town is a shot at Verne Gagne's title and from hearing O'Connor talk about it, he doesn't plan to let the Crusher stand in his way.

It will be the first actual meeting between the two men, but O'Connor claims the Crusher backed out of a match in Pittsburgh three years ago.

After being confronted with the above information the Crusher replied (and not too gently), "What is that nut talking about. I remember that night. I was already scheduled to wrestle in New York and I wasn't about to change my plans for a punk who smells like a kangaroo."

Continuing his insults the Crusher said, "I've talked to guys who have wrestled him before. They all claim he smells of Kangaroo skin. (Ed NOTE: O'Connor, in fact, actually was raised on a ranch where kangaroos were present.)

O'Connor, a true ring gentleman, responded to the criticism by saying, "He's a typical ring loudmouth. I use my brain and muscles and they usually prove more effective than a set of yacking teeth."

Crusher Did This →

The Crusher

THE CRUSHER
Destroys Rocky In Missouri Match

...To Rocky Hamilton

Pictured above is Rocky Hamilton. Do you remember him? Chances are you don't and you can't be blamed at all.

The roving Sports Facts camera caught the sorry sight just moments after the Missouri Match between the Crusher and Hamilton finished.

As the picture indicates, Hamilton lost and in a most convincing fashion. Hamilton claims the Crusher used brass knuckles to open a two-inch gash just above Hamilton's left eye. (It required 10 stitches to close).

But no matter how it happened, the Crusher emerged the victor after 11 minutes and 20 seconds of action May 25 in the St. Paul Auditorium.

Several wrestling fans commented after the match that it was the bloodiest affair they had ever witnessed. The match ended with Hamilton lying unconscious as the Crusher stood above him also shedding blood.

Keeping with the rules of the match, Hamilton left town, cursing the Crusher all the way.

Tonight's Winner Will Meet Gagne for Title

Minneapolis wrestling promoter Wally Karbo announced last week that the winner of tonight's O'Connor-Crusher match will get a title shot at champion Verne Gagne June 15 in the St. Paul Auditorium.

When word of this reached the Crusher he blew his top. "I'm insulted to think that anyone would even think I had a chance to lose to O'Connor," he screamed. "I'm superior in every respect and will probably flatten the bum (O'Connor) in a matter of minutes."

But the Crusher might do well to hold his tongue until after the match.

O'Connor has held every title possible in the World, including the one Gagne holds now. It is certain that he will be no push-over for the madman from Milwaukee.

But how does Gagne view the whole matter?

Gagne, a true champion, is always ready to take on any and all challengers, but only after they have proved their ability in the ring by knocking off the top challengers.

"I consider tonight's match a true elimination bout. I personally like Pat and it is no secret what I think of the Crusher. I would rather meet O'Connor, but only because I think that if I were defeated by either of the two, O'Connor would be the only one to make a decent champ."

Gagne pointed out that if the Crusher ever wore the title belt, pro wrestling would go back at least 10 years and take at least that many to recover from the shock.

VERNE GAGNE

... Will Face Winner

KARBO'S KOLUMN

By WALLY KARBO

Minneapolis Wrestling Promoter

GAGNE SPEAKS HIS MIND — I'm letting Verne Gagne say a few words about Larry Hennig in the following paragraph. "As far as I am concerned Larry Hennig can stick to refereeing and I'll do the wrestling around here. . . I'm beginning to believe that all he is good for is refereeing after watching his new form of wrestling. . . A fellow his age shouldn't be shooting off his mouth as much as he has been the past few weeks. . . If he'd use his eyes instead of his mouth, he might learn a few things about real wrestling."

CRUSHER BEEF AGAIN — I have not seen a week go by when the Crusher has not stormed into my office demanding outrageous things. . . I keep him on the main event at all times and he continues to yell. . . Tonight I gave him a match with Pat O'Connor, one of the finest wrestlers in history and he complains. . . Most wrestlers would be more than happy to have a chance to wrestle against a man of O'Connor's ability but not the Crusher. . . He claims that I'm putting him off when he demands a match with Gagne. . . I'm giving him his chance to prove his real worth tonight. . . If he beats O'Connor, he gets his shot at Gagne. . . If not, O'Connor will face the champ June 15 in St. Paul.

KALMIKOFFS CONTINUE INSULTS — Just when I think the Kalmikoffs may be quieting down a little, they pop off on television again and get everyone sore. . . I receive phone calls every day from fans who object to the Kalmikoffs language on TV. . . They claim that the Russians have no right or business to insult the U.S. or U.S. wrestlers. . . I fully agree with the fans and want to inform them that I am doing everything in my power to keep the Kalmikoffs suppressed. . . I think the best policy may not be fighting them with words, but rather with action. . . I plan to bring in some top names in the near future and maybe they can do something about the situation. . . I believe then that only a crushing defeat will ever quiet Ivan and Karol. . . Tiny Mills and Stan Kowalski have formed into a tag team again and I guarantee they will be given every opportunity to show their stuff against the Kalmikoffs if they ask for a match.

I FINALLY GOT RID OF ONE OF THEM — The matches in St. Paul Auditorium May 23 solved a big problem for me — Rocky Hamilton. . . With his defeat at the hands of the Crusher he was forced to leave town and I hope he doesn't plan to return for some time. . . But all of my problems were not solved. . . I still have the Crusher. . .

Gagne made it clear, however, that he did not fear the Crusher and that if the Crusher defeated O'Connor tonight he would sign to meet him in the St. Paul Auditorium.

A quick poll of several fans at last Tuesday's matches indicated that O'Connor will be the popular choice in tonight's match. Not a single person interviewed said that he wanted the Crusher to win.

Popular opinion had it that if Gagne and O'Connor meet, it will be one of the finest wrestling matches around these parts in many years.

The question of who would win was not settled. Gagne was given just a slight edge by most.

Minneapolis Bout Set . . .

Haystack is Coming

Minneapolis wrestling fans will be able to watch the biggest wrestler in the world when the huge (600 pounds) Haystack invades town, in July.

Calhoun has not only set ring records with his string of victories, but he has also set several records at the dinner table where his eating feats are heralded from coast to coast.

Fans who already know of his coming have expressed hope that he will flatten (literally) the Crusher if and when the two ever meet.

Mat fans are reminded of that the next matches in the Twin Cities will be June 15 in the St. Paul Auditorium. Pro wrestling returns to Minneapolis June 25.

Irate Grapplers Plan Violent Campaign Against Kalmikoffs

American wrestlers all over the country are getting sick and tired of Ivan and Karol Kalmikoff's verbal assaults on American citizens—wrestlers and laymen alike. And to a man, they plan to do something about it.

Rough and scientific wrestlers alike have teamed to form one big alliance — THE CLOBBER THE KALMIKOFFS CLUB.

One side of the fence are such names as Verne Gagne, Pat O'Connor, Doug Gilbert and Don McClarty.

As Gagne put it, "The Kalmikoffs are a disgrace not only to wrestling, but to American soil. Either they must be driven out of the country and back to the plains of Russia or have their lips sewn shut forever."

Foremost of the other type of wrestler is DICK THE BRUISER who happens to be the Crusher's cousin.

Said Bruiser in a recent phone call to Wally Karbo: "There has been more than one time during the past few months that I have almost bought a ticket to Minneapolis to see what I could do about the situation."

TV Change Made

Because the Minnesota Twins baseball game will be telecast Monday night on WTCN (channel 11) TV, a change has been made in the regular Monday wrestling telecast.

Tuesday night wrestling will be telecast from 7:30 p.m. - 8 p.m. and again Thursday night from 8:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.

DON McCLARTY
... Wants Top Names

He added that the Crusher has kept him posted on the goings on with the Kalmikoffs and both agree that something has to be done to stop the two brothers who think to live in Russia is better than it is in the good old United States.

Fans all over the WTCN - TV area get a weekly diet of verbal abuse from Ivan and Karol, who take the opportunity of an interview to hurl insults at the very country that has made them rich.

Whether it be the wrestlers or the fans, all agree that something must be done about it and QUICK

Sharky Wants Hodge

Walk up to Eddie Sharkey now days and ask him what he has been doing and you will always get the same answer — TRAINING.

Yes, Eddie is engaged in the most serious training of his career. It is all pointed at a world's title bout with Danny Hodge, the present junior champion of the world.

In Hodge, Sharky will face one of the toughest opponents he has ever met.

The past few years Hodge has been undefeated in defending his junior title. Not only was he an amateur wrestler before turning pro, but he was also a great in boxing.

Don McClarty Challenges All

Don McClarty, the fastest rising star in Minneapolis, issued a few challenges last week.

"I want nothing but top-notch opposition. I am ready to meet the Crusher, the Kalmikoffs or anyone else Wally Karbo is willing to put me against," he said.

Continuing, he stated that he thought his record the past month spoke for itself in that he has defeated Karol Kalmikoff and other main eventers.

He showed well in teaming with Verne Gagne and Doug Gilbert for a victory against Ivan and Karol Kalmikoff May 25 at the St. Paul Auditorium.

The wrestling office has received several letters since he came into town, commenting on the fact that he might make the perfect tag team partner for Doug Gilbert.

In fact McClarty himself has been high in his praise for Gilbert and it is just possible that the two may form a permanent partnership in the near future.

But for the moment, McClarty just wants to defeat his opponents one by one until the day he gets the opportunity he has been dreaming of since he was a boy — a shot at the world's heavyweight title.

Just scan these Hodge feats:

- Won the Kansas heavyweight boxing championship with three straight knockouts at Wichita, Kan.

- Won the Golden Gloves tournament of champions and he won the heavyweight title at Chicago Stadium with three knockouts and one decision.

- Won the National Golden Gloves championship at Madison Square Garden, knocking out a 212 pounder in two rounds.

- Wally Karbo informed Sharky that to get the bout with Hodge, he would have to lose weight and get down to at least 210 pounds — the Minnesota limit for a junior title bout.

Sharkey, even though he has not been wrestling as much as some of the other wrestlers in town, has gained great popularity — especially with the female fans.

So with the shout of "Come on Eddie" ringing in the ears, a dead serious Eddie Sharky prepares for the biggest match of his career.

IT'S SIGNED, SEALED, and DELIVERED.... THE MATCH OF THE CENTURY !!!

Two weeks from tonight, in the center of the Austin City Coliseum Ring, MAT HISTORY will be made, when TWO WORLD CHAMPIONS COLLIDE in an EPIC WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP Contest. The Eyes of the Nation will be focused on Austin, when SIX TIME WORLD HEAVYWEIGHT KING LOUIE THESZ faces his foremost Challenger, "DYNAMITE DANNY" HODGE...

Wrestling Fans will see this colossal Contest at BARGAIN PRICES due to a NATIONALLY SYNDICATED FILM DEAL that I have been fortunate enough to work out... Nationwide distribution of the THESZ vs HODGE MOVIES should net LOUIE THESZ from $20,000 to $30,000..... HODGE'S PERCENTAGE should bring him $15,000 to $25,000. These figures are estimated on just the immediate 1964 Forecast... There is no telling what the Residual Rights on this Film will gross in the next TEN YEARS..

Although FILMING of MATCHES was banned by the N.W.A. several Years ago, I have been granted a SPECIAL DISPENSATION by that Governing Body, to film this once-in-a-lifetime Event... WHY is it illegal to FILM WRESTLING MATCHES ?? AND, WHY has the N.W.A. made an Exception for me ?? It is illegal to film, because in past Years, unscrupulous Promoters have exploited Wrestlers through these Films. Mat Stars have signed their Residual Rights away for a mere pittance, and money Hungry Promoters made Fortunes distributing these Films all over the World. I would be a MILLIONAIRE Today, had I gotten a FAIR SHAKE on the Films that were made of hundreds of my MATCHES in Los Angeles, and Hollywood in 1950... These very same Films were being shown in AUSTRALIA two Years ago, when I took a trip DOWN UNDER to compete as a Wrestler. Every City in Texas, and in the U.S.A. has seen these Hollywood Wrestling Films... I and many other Wrestlers had NO IDEA of the Millions upon Millions of Dollars that would be realized through the Nationwide and WORLDWIDE Distribution of these Films...

The N.W.A. nipped these PROMOTERS in the bud several Years ago, when it flatly banned ALL FILMING... Fans will remember that we did some filming last Year for WRESTLING HILITES. This was a Special Dispensation also... Under the terms of my agreement with the N.W.A. the WRESTLING HILITE FILMS were viewed only once on K.T.B.C.-TV and then destroyed under the supervision of N.W.A. President, SAM MUCHNIK.. Since this strict Ruling was issued, many Promoters have tried to work out sensible ways to re-instate Filming. However, the N.W.A. absolutely turned down any and all propositions that were presented. MY PLAN is SO SIMPLE, it is a WONDER that No one stumbled on it before... The Reason Promoters can't film is because the N.W.A. is afraid they will CHEAT the Wrestlers.. therefore GIVE THE WRESTLERS 100 % of ALL RIGHTS TO ANY FILM... This is what has been done. It has been gladly accepted by the N.W.A. and hailed by all fair-minded Promoters as a GIANT STEP in improving the mat game .. It opens the door to BIG MONEY MATCHES for SMALL CLUBS that are willing to do likewise...

REMEMBER, NO WRESTLING NEXT WEEK JAN 2nd....

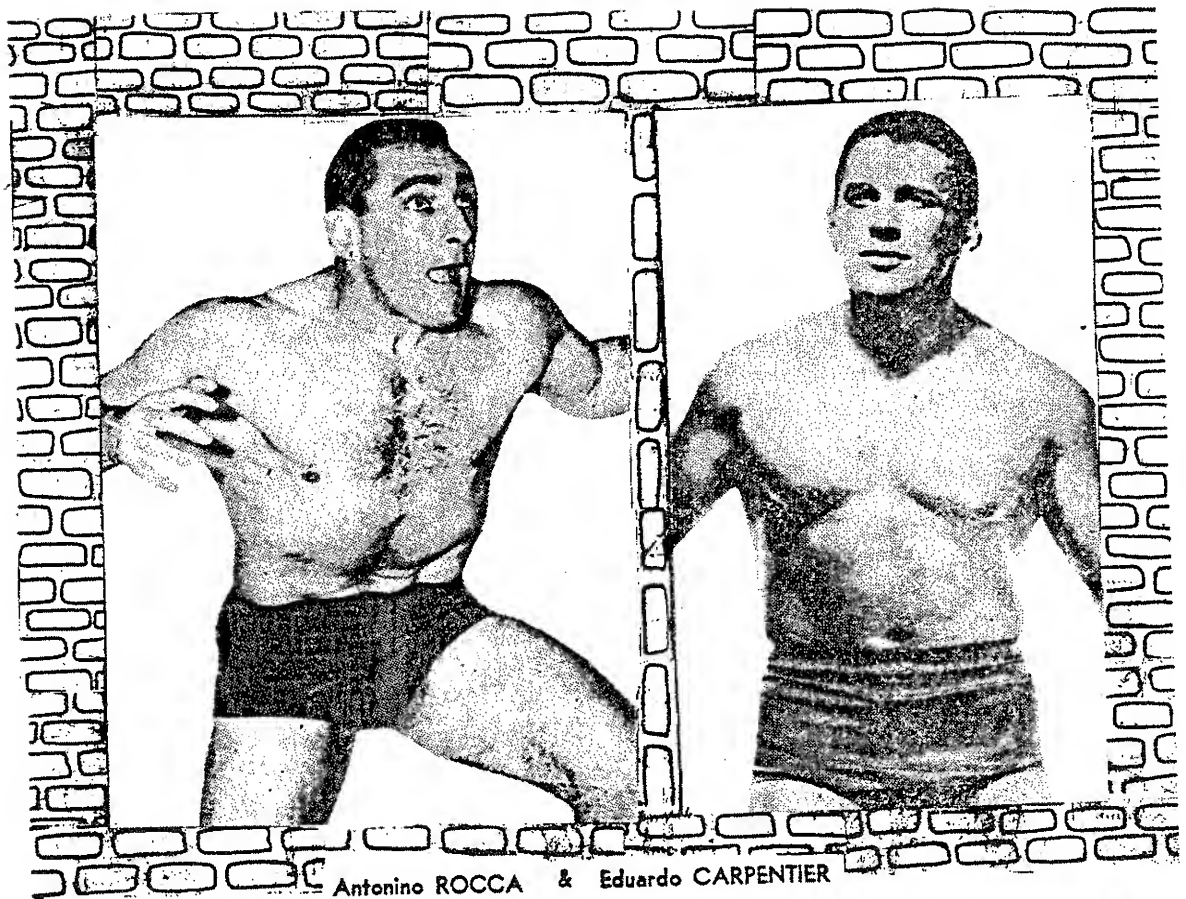

I need TWO WEEKS to properly publicize, finalize and Promote this JAN 9th WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW! See you THURSDAY, JANUARY 9th with the greatest and best Grapple card you ever saw..

Kangaroos Keep Title

TAMPA — The Kangaroos, Roy Heffernan and Al Costello, retained their world tag team championship last night, defeating the Flying Frenchmen, Tony Baillergeon and Maurice La-Ponte, with two consecutive falls before a near capacity crowd at Fort Homer Hesterly Armory.

In a special one-fall team match, Kurt and Karl Von Brauner, the German twins, defeated Don Curtis and Joe Scarpa.

There will be no wrestling at the Armory next week but the regular slate of events will resume Jan. 22.

Mat Feature Ends in Draw

Ilio DiPaolo and Billy Lyons teamed Friday night to battle Johnny Valentine and Dick (Bulldog) Brower to a 30-minute draw in the Buffalo Wrestling Club feature at Memorial Auditorium.

The bout, stopped by the 11 p.m. curfew, marked the first time in more than a year that a match had gone so long without even one fall.

In other matches, Ricki Starr halted Doc Gallagher in 8:01; The Beast and John Paul Henning, who was impressive in his Buffalo debut, fought to a 20-minute draw; Lord Littlebrook pinned Dandy Andy in 10:51 of their midget match; Johnny Foti stopped Ramon Lopez in 16:19 and Stan Stasiak scored over Tim Geohagan in 11:04.

A crowd of 4,115—including four Boy Scout Troops — was announced.

Matmen Vie
At Coliseum
On Thursday

Eddie Graham, one of the most popular matmen ever to appear in a Jacksonville ring, will wrestle Mighty Zorro in a one-fall finish match Thursday night in the Jacksonville Coliseum.

The match will be one of two feature events. The other is to be a tag team championship match between Karl and Kurt Von Brauner and the challengers, Yukon Eric and Don Curtis.

It will be over the best two out of three falls route, with a one-hour time limit.

The Graham-Zorro match promises interesting side-lights.

Zorro said he will remove the mask he always wears if he fails to beat Graham. Graham declared he will burn his trunks in the ring and leave Florida if he doesn't whip Zorro.

Hiro Matsuda and Duke Keomuka, a newly formed Japanese tag team, will take on the masked Crusaders in a two out of three falls match with a one-hour limit.

MEANIE — The Beast (above) and Bulldog Brower will oppose Hiro DiPaolo and Billy (Red) Lyons in the mat feature tomorrow night at the War Memorial. The Beast and Brower won a disputed victory over DiPaolo and Lyons in their first scuffle two weeks ago. Four other bouts are listed.

Waldo, Crusher to Clash in Twin to Double Feature

There'll be two features — instead of one — on the Saturday night City Auditorium raffle riot.

Matchmaker Joe Dusek Saturday closed with Waldo Von Erich and The Crusher to round off the card with a 60-minute, two out of three falls bout.

This will pair with the companion 60-minute event, the Fritz (Iron Claw) Von Erich-Doug Gilbert showdown.

So fans will see both Von Erich brothers on the same card.

Stevens Puts

On the Line

Wilbur Snyder, former Los Angeles Ram griddler from Walnut Creek, goes after Ray Stevens' heavyweight title on tonight's Cow Palace wrestling card.

A companion feature sends Pepper Gomez and Luis Martinez against tag team champs Art and Stan Neilson.

Wrestler Graham Wins With Right Cross

TAMPA — Eddle Graham of Tampa, defeated Southern champion Hiro Matsuda of Japan before 4,605 fans at Fort Homer Hesterly Armory here last night. Graham, allowed to use bare knuckles, stopped Matsuda in 10 minutes and 13 seconds with a right cross.

Other results: Kurt and Karl Von Brauner defeated Don Curtis and Ray Villmer; Duke Keomuka defeated Indio Joe; Fran Grayette and The Crusader downed Olga Martinez and Miguel Rodriguez and Mike Paidousis drew with Malenko.

TAMPA — Southern champion Hiro Matsuda and partner Duke Keomuka defeated challengers Ray Villmer and Don Curtis at the Fort Hesterly Armory last night to retain their world tag-team wrestling championship.

A crowd of 4,300 fans witnessed the title match, the final bout of promoter Cowboy Luttrall's card.

In a special battle to the finish, Eddie Graham of Tampa won over the Great Malenko of Russia in two of three falls. In the opening event, Al Torres and Crusader Len Rossi fought to a 20-minute draw, while Raymond Torres bested Mike Paidousis in the second event.

Hoffman in Waldo's Corner?—

If He Is, Handcuffs Ready

Matchmaker Joe Dusek Saturday had an ultimatum for Duke Hoffman, the recent ally of the Von Erichs in the rattle wars.

"If Hoffman thinks he's going to second Waldo Von Erich in Friday night's City Auditorium bout with Verne Gagne he could be right," Dusek said.

"But if he thinks he's going to have a free hand to give Waldo an assist he's dead wrong. We'll have handcuffs ready at ringside and chances are Hoffman will wind up handcuffed to a cop—or a ring post."

The special event was added Saturday — sending the 285-pound Spaniard, Hercules Cortez, against Iowa's Larry Henning.

Mad Dog Vachone and Pat Patterson won two out of three falls to defeat Rocky Columbo and Herb Freeman in the main event of Monday night's wrestling card at the Labor Temple.

After each team had taken one fall, Vachone rebounded from the ropes to floor Columbo and then pinned his prey after a punishing knee drop across the throat.

In other bouts, Gil Ane won the semifinal event from Soldat Gorkey on a disqualification, Billy White Wolf and Wild Bill Savage fought to a draw, and Ricky Hunter won over Haru Sasaki in one fall.

Borne Bout Mat Feature

The Labor Temple arena, usually a Monday night abattoir for roughneck wrestlers, will be dark this week but there'll be plenty of riotous mat action at the Auditorium.

The grapplers, headed by Tony Borne and Maurice Vachone, shift into the municipal building with the bearded gladiators topping an all-star five-bout card.

Borne and Vachone will clash under Texas rules which call for the match to continue until one combatant is unable to defend himself or gives up.

The loser promoter Don Owen has promised, will have his whiskers shaved at ringside.

In the top supporting bout, Bill Savage will oppose portly Prince Kuhio.

Kurt Von Poppenheim will face Billy White Wolf; Abe Jacobs will tangle with Gil Ane and Rickey Hunter will lock grips with Haru Sasaki.

Dunkirk Slates Wrestling Card

Special to The Courier-Express
DUNKIRK—The professional wrestlers, playing to near capacity crowds in recent weeks, will be back for the fourth of the series of shows in Dunkirk's Floral Hall Saturday night, with the first tag match of 1963 as the big feature.

The Beast and his manager, Martino Angelo, will go against Billy Lyons and Tony Marino in the best-of-three falls main event. The shows are sponsored by the Chautauqua County Firemen's Fraternity.

John Paul Henning, who turned in creditable performances in Buffalo in recent months, bows in with a best-of-three falls match against The Malta Kid.

White Wolf Scores Win

Referee Shag Thomas disqualified three wrestlers in a crackdown on foul play in Monday's grappling program at the Labor Temple. Included was a disqualification of Jack Dalton in the main event, giving the win to Billy White Wolf.

White Wolf had won a fall from Dalton and the two matmen were battling it out for the second takedown when Thomas stepped in and ruled Dalton out for unsporting tactics.

The other winners by disqualification were George Drake over Iyan Kameroff and Andre Drapp over Soldat Gorky. In one fall bouts Gil Ane defeated Haru Sasaki and Rocky Columbo won over Jim Dalton.

Yamamoto Duo Posts Mat Win

Suki Yamamoto and Hans Steiner won the tag team wrestling finale at Madison Square Garden Friday night by taking two of three falls from Tito Montez and Pancho Pico.

In the supporting features, Ham Lee bested Wild Man Shane by taking two of three falls. Shane was substituting for the ailing Don (Bulldog) Kent.

In other matches, Ken Lucas took two of three falls from Scotty Williams and Mario Taroli pinned Ray Duran in a one-fall duel.

El Toro vs. Pedro Sanchez; Bandit Lopez vs. Dick Chaney; Pancho Gonzales vs. Ted Christy.

Kleen, Rasputin Head Mat Card

New mat idol Mr. Kleen and Rasputin headline the return of big time wrestling to the Denver Auditorium Arena Friday night.

In another match the fast moving Funks (Dory Sr. and Dory Jr.) team up in a tag team bout with Sputnik Monroe and Tokio Tom.

Ricky Romero will tangle with Dick Dunn. Dory Funk Jr. and Sputnik Monroe will stage a Cajun knife fight.

Prince Kuhio Keeps Title

Massive Prince Kuhio, holder of the American professional wrestling title, used his favorite weapon, the belly smash, to gain a two-out-of-three fall verdict over Indian Billy White Wolf at the Portland Armory Monday night before 2,000 frenzied onlookers. The huge Hawaiian, tipping the scales at around 290 pounds, used his huge frame to gain the third and deciding fall and keep his crown. A series of belly smashes were more than the popular White Wolf could stand during the deciding fall.

White Wolf captured the first fall in the main event by using a series of tomahawk chops and a leg lock. White Wolf appeared to be well on the way to winning the second fall and the match using the same tactics. However, Billy made the mistake of belting referee Rocky Columbo with a tomahawk blow and Columbo awarded the fall to Kuhio by disqualification, much to the crowd's displeasure.

In the other feature, the "Destroyer" continued his unbeaten record in Portland by downing Shag Thomas. The Destroyer used a leg lock to topple Thomas after the latter missed a head butt and hit the steel pole at the ring corner instead.

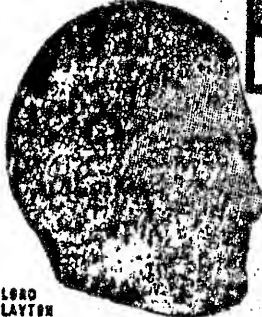

Louie Tillet On His Own

Louie Tillet has been told by wrestling promoter Morris Sigel that he will be on his own when he meets Ricki Starr in a return tangle at the Coliseum Friday night.

Last week Louie's brother, Jean, intruded and came close to causing a riot. Sigel signed the return at the insistence of an angry Starr and although Ricki refused to beg for favors Sigel has finally reached the point of barring Jean from the ringside.

"I'll have extra police on hand with orders to keep Jean from the ringside," said Sigel. "If necessary we'll handcuff him."

Vociferous Lillian 'Helps' Gagne Dethrone Von Erich

Omaha's most vociferous lady rassling fan, Lillian Roth, drew a major assist in dethroning every one's meanie, Fritz Von Erich, to the high delight of 4,012 City Auditorium Arena fans Saturday night.

La Roth engaged the German bully boy in a face-making, arm-waving melee outside the ring just long enough to let Verne Gagne slip back onto the throne by disqualification.

Their match stood at a fall apiece when the claw hold disciple spun out of the ring almost into the lap of the belligerent Lillian.

When Fritz was still outside the legal battle scene at the count of 10, the ref hoisted Verne's paw—and the championship belt was hoisted to the Minnesotan. It was a mad house after that. But the decision stuck.

Mitsu Arakawa, the Japanese claw specialist making his first Omaha appearance in two seasons, and Waldo Von Erich both lost in the semiwindup.

With their wild go-around at a fall apiece, each had an illegal hold locked fast—and when Referee Ernie Dusek couldn't break 'em he ruled a double disqualification.

This brought Brother Fritz into the ring to protest, but all he got for his trouble was an extra treatment of the Mitsu stomach claw.

The next auditorium show is booked for Saturday night, September 21. Other results:

Guy Mitchen and Don Whittier won two out of three falls from Danny Piechas and Rocky Hamilton in the tag match.

Jack Pesek drew in 15 minutes with Bob Geigel.

Hans Schmidt Stops Art Thomas' Streak At Six Triumphs

Hans Schmidt Friday night ended Art Thomas' six-week local winning streak in the feature match of the Buffalo Wrestling Club's show before 3009 in Memorial Auditorium.

The 280-pound Thomas lost on a penalty fall at 15 minutes, 18 seconds. He was ruled out after he pushed referee Cappy Caprino to the floor. Thomas clashed with the referee over Schmidt's flagrant use of the "claw hold."

Billy Lyons won two straight falls to defeat the Great Mephisto. Lyons won the first fall on a disqualification when his opponent had him on the ropes and refused to break a stranglehold. Lyons won the second fall at 9:58 with a "sleeper hold."

Johnny Barrend used a "Boston Crab" and a "Knee-Drop" to subdue Tony Simon; Johnny Valentine defeated Tommy O'Toole in 6:15. Tony Parisi and Donn Lewin went 20 minutes to a draw in the opener.

Carl Gotch Vs. Stevens At Palace

Arakawa Wins as Snyder Lands Outside of the Ring

Mitsu Arakawa whipped another rassling foe in the Civic Auditorium ring Saturday night, this time Wilbur Snyder.

Arakawa got on the lower end of a Snyder attack and came out on top before 1,952 unhappy fans. With the match even at a fall apiece—Snyder took the first with an abdominal twist, Arakawa the second with his stomach claw—the men were in a speedy exchange when Snyder moved in.

The Japanese strong man ducked and Snyder went sprawling over the top rope and onto the concrete floor of the arena. The handsome Californian couldn't return before referee Ernie Dusek counted ten.

Dan Evans, the lumberjack from upper New York State, made easy work of Krusher Kowalski in the semi-windup. Evans used his powerful bear hug to dispose of the Polish strong man in 8:20 of the first fall.

Kowalski couldn't recover from the effects of the back-breaking hold and had to forfeit the second fall.

Duke Hoffman, the Nebraska state heavyweight king, needed 24 minutes 22 seconds before he finally polished off newcomer Anthony Manos in the special event. Don Whittler and Paul Christy scrapped to a draw in the opener.

36th Wrestler Signed for Season

HELMUT VON HESS, the 36th pro wrestler signed by Promoter Pedro Martinez for this season, makes his debut in Memorial Auditorium Friday evening. He'll oppose Sailor Al Clark. Mike Gallagher goes against Art Thomas and Doc Gallagher meets Tony Marino.

HODGE TO SCRAP CLANCY TONIGHT

Danny Hodge and Mike Clancy clash in a non-title match in the main event of Monday night's Cimarron wrestling card. Bell time for the four match program is 8:30 p.m.

A tag team match, slated for two out of three falls with a one-hour time limit, will be fought between four midget wrestlers. In this scrap, the brother team of Frenchy and Bernie Semard face Pee Wee Lopez and Chico Santana.

Jerry Kozak goes against Mario Galento in the one-fall, 30-minute top preliminary and Mr. Sasaki of Japan tangles with Ken Hill of Miami in the one-fall, 20-minute opener.

Tickets are on sale all day Monday at the Cimarron Arena box office, telephone LU 4-4667.

Battle Won By Vachone

A roughneck grappler wound up as king of a mat battle royal at the Labor Temple Monday night when Maurice Vachone outlasted seven rivals in the main attraction of promoter Don Owen's weekly card.

Nick Bockwinkle was the first eliminated and was followed out of the ring by Jack Kiser, Gil Ane, Dick Dunn and Herb Freeman, leaving Don Duffy, Paddy Barrett and Vachone to scrap it out.

Duffy and Vachone ganged up on Barrett, but the nimble Irishman was able to elude their rushes and finally toss Duffy over the ropes.

In doing this, however, he left himself open and was pushed onto the apron by Vachone, who then as the last survivor was awarded the match.

In earlier bouts, Duffy pinned Kiser, Bockwinkle turned the same trick on Ane, Vachone lost on a foul to Freeman and Barrett took a one-fall verdict from Dunn.

Gallaghers Win Mat Team Test

The Gallagher brothers—Mike and Doc — won over Argentine Rocca and Hans Schmidt in a wild-and-wooly main bout before 3,336 fans Friday night at Memorial Auditorium.

Mike Gallagher took the first fall, using an elbow paralyzer to subdue Schmidt at 3:52. After some hectic maneuvering around ringside prior to the second fall, Schmidt equalized the match by pinning Doc Gallagher with a series of body-slams and a press.

He took an official 48 seconds to do it, although the ringside antics lasted about three minutes.

Rocca softened up Mike Gallagher with a series of drop-kicks in the third fall, and collided with referee Cappy Carpino in the process knocking the official from the ring. When Carpino groggily regained the ring, Mike Gallagher was atop his foe and was awarded the win at 2:12.

In other bouts, Gentleman Art Thomas overpowered Bull Johnson at 5:52; Moose Cholak defeated Baron Gatoni in 3:57; Billy Lyons beat Angelo Savoldi in 4:49, and the midget team of Lord Littlebrook and Rollie the Hawk won over Andy Moore and Bull Brummel. Johnny Barend employed a drop-kick to beat Bill Osborne in 9:21.

Tag Match Heads Mat Card Tonight

Antonino (Argentina) Rocca, a master of scientific wrestling, and durable Hans Schmidt of the unorthodox school, pool their resources tonight to take on the Gallagher Brothers, Mike and Doc, in the headline event of the weekly wrestling show in Memorial Auditorium.

Rocca, in strange company with three mat villains operating at the same time, might well anticipate a wild match. No one could blame him if he discarded the scientific approach.

A Rocca-Schmidt alliance is a strange one. It came about as the result of last week's action when Hans objected to the Gallaghers' methods of disposing of Art Thomas, Rocca's partner for the occasion.

Tonight's card includes Moose Cholak whose 6-2, 320-pound hulk offers a ready target for Johnny Barend's flying drop kicks. Thomas and the Kalmikoffs, Ivan and Nikita, are other highlights.

The card:

Argentina Rocca (232), Buenos Aires vs. Hans Schmidt (252), Munich, Germany vs. Doc (232) and Mike (230) Gallagher, Bayonne, N.J. Best of three falls.
Gentleman Art Thomas (280), Madison, Wis. vs. The Great Mephisto (245), Germany. One fall, 30 min.
Moose Cholak (320), Moosehead, Me. vs. Johnny Barend (230), Rochester. One fall, 20 min.
Billy Lyons (235), Toronto vs. Nikita Kalmikoff (238), Russia. One fall, 20 min.
Ivan Kalmikoff (235), Russia vs. Tony Marino (235), Rochester. One fall, 20 min.
Man Mountain Cannon (340), Norcross, Ga. vs. Angelo Savoldi (222), Camden, N.J. One fall, 20 min.

Mat Giants Featured On Card Tonight

The super-dreadnaughts of pro-wrestling dominate tonight's weekly program in Memorial Auditorium as Promoter Pedro Martinez offers a card headed by Moose Cholak (340) vs. Hans Schmidt (252). The Golden Moose posts an eight-bout unblemished record against the threat of the German challenger.

The high spot of the leadup program will be the unveiling of the 311-pound, 7-foot, 1-inch Shohei Baba of Japan who meets the Great Mephisto, a 252-pounder. Advance word from Buffalo's Dick Beyer, who crossed paths with the Jap, is to look for far more excitement than was provided by The Great Togo in the early '50s or more recently by the Keomuka Brothers, Duke and Sato.

Further emphasis to Martinez' super-dreadnaught parade comes with the appearance of 280-pound Art Thomas in the tag feature. He teams with Billy Lyons for action against the Gallaghers, Mike, and Doc.

The card:

Hans Schmidt (252), Munich, Germany vs. Moose Cholak (340), Moosehead, Me. One fall, finish.
Art Thomas (280), Madison, Wis. and Billy Lyons (235), Toronto vs. Mike (230) and Doc (232) Gallagher, Bayonne, N.J. One fall, 30 minute time limit.
Shohei Baba (311), Japan vs. The Great Mephisto (252) Berlin, Germany. One fall, 30 min.
Johnny Barend (235), Rochester vs. Bull Johnston (229), Charlotte, N.C. One fall, 20 min.
Ivan Kalmikoff (228), Russia vs. Donn Lewin (220), Buffalo. One fall, 20 min.

DiPaolo Spots 88 Pounds To Cholak

Ilio DiPaolo will be spotting Moose Cholak some 88 pounds and several inches in height when they come to grips in the feature event of the Buffalo Wrestling Club show in Memorial Auditorium Friday night. But it isn't causing DiPaolo any undue concern.

If anything, the crowd-pleasing Italian, making his first start on U.S. soil since his three-month stay in Japan, prefers to grapple big men. The Moose towers 6-feet, 3-inches and punishes the scales at 340 pounds.

"I'd prefer opponents of Cholak's type for all my matches," Ilio said. "The Moose offers a ready target for two of my favored offensive maneuvers, the drop kicks and flying head scissors."

DiPaolo points to his conquest of Big Bill Miller here in September, his last bout before leaving for Japan. Miller measures up to Cholak in both height and weight and Ilio did a workmanlike job on him.

The Gallaghers vs. Billy Lyons and Johnny Barend will be the heavyweight tag feature, while the midjet matmen headed by Lord Littlebrook will be in a second two-platoon bout. There will be two more singles matches to round out the program.
